July 2020

2021 Registration Begins October 1 With No Fee Changes

Correction: Registration for the 2019 registration year will end on September 30, 2020, not September 20. We apologize for the error.

Registration for the 2021 UCR registration year will open October 1, 2020, at 8:00 a.m. EDT. Fees will remain the same as they are for 2020 and are currently listed on the UCR website. Registration for the 2019 registration year (except for state audit purposes) will end on September 30, 2020, at 5:00 p.m. EDT.

UCR Enforcement Active as of July 1

The UCR Board recommended that states consider July 1, 2020, as the start of the 2020 enforcement period.

Remaining 2020 UCR Meetings Now Virtual

Given continuing uncertainties surrounding COVID-19, UCR Board Chair Elizabeth Leaman has decided that all remaining meetings in 2020 will be telephonic meetings. Furthermore, the Audit, Education and Training, and Finance Subcommittee meetings that were scheduled for December 9, in San Diego, California, are now cancelled.

We apologize for any inconvenience this causes, but we believe that this action is the most prudent course at this time.

Education and Training Spotlight: UCR 101

You no longer have to attend in-person trainings to learn about UCR. Our UCR 101 module provides an overview of the program, answering questions such as:

- What is UCR?
- Who needs to register?
- How do you register?
- How is UCR enforced?
- Where can you find more information about UCR?

If you're already familiar with some aspects of UCR but are curious about one of these questions, you can skip straight to that topic—or watch them all straight through. Go to the education and training center to watch the video.
